

Christmas Wreaths

This two hour workshop will provide you with the skills and knowledge to produce your own traditional door wreath for the festive season.

Please bring the below items to the workshop:

Flower cutters,
Secateurs,
Cloth for table,
Bin liner for rubbish
Ball of string (not plastic)
Decorative pieces you would like to use on your rings, (e.g. ribbons, artificial flowers, baubles, robins etc.)

Your tutor can provide at cost wires and tapes, moss, frame and evergreens. Cash payment is expected on the day at a total cost of no more than £12 subject to items ordered. Decorative items will also be available to purchase on the day for an additional cost.

Our tutor, Katherine Kear is a national demonstrator, stylist, designer, tutor, folklorist and florist extraordinaire. She has been working with flowers for over 30 years. As well as teaching floristry and flower arranging Katherine has been a regular contributor and researcher for BBC Radio Gloucestershire, where her love and passion for folk and life lore is shared with the listeners, her knowledge and expertise has been used on several television programmes, as well as appearing on them herself. She works regularly with several celebrity gardeners in an exciting flower arranging 'hands on'. Her major literary success was the publication of 'Flower Wisdom' in 2000. She was a consultant for The Usborne Little Book of Flowers and has edited Elements and Principles, and Flowers for Grand Occasions for NAFAS and 5 floristry syllabuses for ICS.

Entry Requirements

This workshop is suitable for all abilities aged 19 and older (as at 31st August 2021).
